R3Water Final Conference registration guide for Brussels

R3Water Final Conference registration was the sign-up file for the 30 May 2017 closing conference in Brussels. The file belonged to the R3Water urban wastewater project funded under FP7, according to SusChem on 3 May 2017. The conference title was Water in the circular economy – innovations for urban water treatment.

What does R3Water Final Conference registration cover?

R3Water Final Conference registration covers sign-up for the 30 May 2017 Brussels closing event. The registration PDF was listed alongside the meeting agenda on r3water.eu, according to SusChem on 3 May 2017. The linked Final Conference announcement gives the same event title and city.

Where did R3Water Final Conference registration lead?

R3Water Final Conference registration led to the 30 May 2017 meeting at 21 Rue Montoyer in Brussels. The meeting was scheduled to start at 10:00 at the Representation of the State of Hessen to the EU, 1000 Brussels, according to SusChem on 3 May 2017. The programme combined project presentations with keynote talks on reuse, recovery and resource efficiency.

How does the R3Water project support reuse and recovery?

The R3Water project demonstrated reuse and recovery at 3 sites in Belgium, Spain and Sweden. The work covered water reuse, recovery of valuables such as nutrients, and resource efficiency, according to CORDIS on 20 April 2022. Earlier project outreach included workshop and site visits for stakeholders.

The project ran from January 2014 for 42 months with a budget of EUR 7.8 million, according to SusChem on 3 May 2017. The formal record lists 1 January 2014 to 30 June 2017 under grant 619093, with 12 partners from seven countries, according to CORDIS on 20 April 2022. Current Industry News places this closing event at the end of that demonstration period.

Item | Detail as of May 2017

Event | Water in the circular economy – innovations for urban water treatment
Date and start | 30 May 2017, 10:00
Venue | Representation of the State of Hessen to the EU, 21 Rue Montoyer, 1000 Brussels
Project | R3Water, FP7 grant 619093, January 2014 to 30 June 2017
Demonstration | 3 sites in Belgium, Spain and Sweden

The three project aims were resource-efficient plant performance, water reuse and valuables recovery, and market uptake across contexts, according to CORDIS on 20 April 2022.

R3Water Final Conference registration FAQ

What event does the R3Water Final Conference registration file cover?

The R3Water Final Conference registration file covers the 30 May 2017 Brussels closing conference. The file was the PDF sign-up form linked alongside the agenda, according to SusChem on 3 May 2017. It did not contain project results.

Where was the event in the R3Water Final Conference registration held?

The R3Water Final Conference registration points to a meeting starting at 10:00 at 21 Rue Montoyer, 1000 Brussels. The venue was the Representation of the State of Hessen to the EU, according to SusChem on 3 May 2017.

What project is behind the R3Water Final Conference registration?

The R3Water project behind the R3Water Final Conference registration ran from January 2014 to 30 June 2017 under grant 619093. It demonstrated water reuse and valuables recovery at 3 sites, according to CORDIS on 20 April 2022.